

2024 Duke Brazil Initiative (DBI) Student and Faculty Research Grants Application Form

Application Deadline: Friday March 8, 2024

I. Applicant Information

Name (Last, First, Middle)
Date of Birth
Country of Citizenship
Duke Unique ID Number
Department/School Name
Telephone
Email Address

Indicate your foreign language skills (list each language and number of years studied/spoken)

II. Project Information

I will use the award for Faculty, PhD, Masters, or Undergraduate research.

Proposed Project Title

Proposed Dates of Research:

Does this project involve animal or human subjects?

If yes, do both you and your advisor have current ethics training certificates?

If yes, have you or your advisor filed for IRB approval or exemption?

Indicate status/results of IRB application

III. Budget Information

Please note: Due to our limited budget, we require all applicants to seek funding from other sources as well. We ask for your help in providing clear information as detailed below in order to help us distribute our funds in the most equitable way possible.

Total Cost of Project:

Amount Requested from DBI: (In addition please attach an itemized budget indicating the proposed uses of funds requested from DBI; (allowable costs include international airfare, in-country travel, lodging, meals)

Funding Requested from Other Sources: (please specify each source and each amount requested)

Funding Obtained from Other Sources: (please specify each source and each amount obtained)

Applicants are asked to inform DBI of other research awards received for this project from other sources prior to notification of the outcome of the DBI competition.

Please return this form, together with your narrative proposal, itemized budget, bibliography, list of institutional partners/personal contacts in Brazil, curriculum vitae, and official Duke transcript all in a single email attachment (Word or .pdf documents only) to: patrick.semmler@duke.edu .

Faculty letters of recommendation should also be sent directly to patrick.semmler@duke.edu via email – be sure they are clearly labeled in the subject line as to which student they are recommending.