

Summer/Fall 2024 Faculty Travel Grants
for Research on Latin America and the Caribbean Application Form

Duke Center for Latin American and Caribbean Studies (CLACS)
Application deadline: Friday, March 8, 2024

I. Applicant Information

Applicant Name: _____

Duke Unique ID # _____

Date of Birth _____

Department: _____

Campus Address: _____

_____

Phone Number: _____

Email Address: _____

Proposed Project Title: _____

_____

Proposed Dates of Travel: _____ until _____

Country Destination: _____

Host Country Affiliation: _____

II. Budget Information

Total Cost of Project: _____

Amount Requested from CLACS: _____

(In addition, please attach an itemized budget indicating the proposed uses of funds requested from CLACS)

Funding Requested from Other Sources: _____

(Please specify each source and each amount requested)

_____

Funding Obtained from Other Sources: _____

(Please specify each source and each amount obtained)

_____

III. Narrative Proposal

Please use the following as an outline for your proposal narrative:

- a) Project description
- b) Indication of the project's relevance to the applicant's discipline or field of research
- c) Anticipated length of project
- d) The planned research agenda
- e) A statement on how the outcomes of the research will be shared with and benefit the collaborating community, as well as the ways in which this community will be actively involved in and contribute to the research process and its applications
- f) One or two sentences explaining how the proposed research will benefit Duke's Latin American and Caribbean Studies program (required by funding agency)

Please return this form, together with your narrative proposal and itemized budget electronically, as email attachments (Word or .pdf document only) to njh@duke.edu.