

SUMMER/FALL 2024 GRADUATE STUDENT FIELD RESEARCH GRANTS
DUKE CENTER FOR LATIN AMERICAN AND CARIBBEAN STUDIES, APPLICATION FORM

Application Deadline: Friday March 8, 2024

I. Applicant Information

Name (Last, First, Middle) _____

Date of Birth _____

Country of Citizenship _____

Duke Unique ID Number _____

Department/School Name _____

Telephone _____

Email Address _____

Date of Enrollment in Duke Program _____

Expected Date of Defense of Dissertation _____

Prospectus _____

Expected Date of Graduation _____

Advisor Name/Contact Information _____

Indicate your foreign language skills (list each language and number of years studied/spoken) _____

Indicate any previous awards you received from CLACS or the UNC/Duke Consortium; indicate type, year, amount of award(s) _____

II. Project Information

I will use the award for (check one): Pre-dissertation, Dissertation, or Masters Project research.

Proposed Project Title _____

Proposed Dates of Research: _____

Country to be Studied _____

Does this project involve animal or human subjects? _____

If yes, do both you and your advisor have current ethics training certificates? _____

If yes, have you or your advisor filed for IRB approval or exemption? _____

Indicate Status/Results of IRB Application _____

III. Budget Information

Please note: Due to our limited budget, we encourage all applicants to seek funding from other sources as well. We ask for your help in providing clear information as detailed below in order to help us distribute our funds in the most equitable way possible.

Total Cost of Project:

Amount requested from CLACS (In addition please attach an itemized budget indicating the proposed uses of funds requested from CLACS; allowable costs include international airfare, in-country travel, lodging, meals)

Funding Requested from Other Sources (please specify each source and each amount requested)

Funding Obtained from Other Sources (please specify each source and each amount obtained)

Applicants are asked to inform Latin American & Caribbean Studies of other research awards received for this project from other sources prior to notification of the outcome of the Latin American & Caribbean Studies competition.

IV. Narrative Proposal

Please use the following as an outline for your proposal narrative:

- A) Topic and objectives of the research project;
- B) Indication of the project's relevance to the applicant's discipline or field of study and to their own academic and career trajectory;
- C) A statement on how the outcomes of the research will be shared with and benefit the collaborating community, as well as the ways in which this community will be actively involved in and contribute to the research process and its applications;
- D) Indication of your ability to function in relevant foreign language as required by this research;
- E) Ties with specific individuals and institutions in the host country;
- F) Anticipated length of project (must be at least two weeks);
- G) The planned research agenda;
- H) A one-page bibliography;

Please return this form, together with your narrative proposal, itemized budget, curriculum vitae, official Duke transcript and letter of recommendation as email attachments (Word or .pdf documents only) to: Natalie Hartman, njh@duke.edu

Faculty letters of recommendation should also be sent to Natalie via email – be sure they are clearly labeled in the subject line as to which student they are recommending.